DATE: 11/26/2018

On November 26th 2018, at approximately 1700 hours, Kensington Police responded to a multi-vehicle accident on the 100 block of Arlington Avenue south bound lane. A total of four vehicles were involved in the collision and one vehicle was overturned.

Both north and southbound lanes of Arlington Avenue had to be shut down temporarily so that emergency vehicles and a tow truck could access the scene of the accident.

Officer's determined that the driver of the overturned vehicle was intoxicated and arrested her for driving under the influence of alcohol, a violation of CVC 23152 (a). The subject arrested was Judith Ginsberg, white female adult, resident out of El Cerrito, born on 07/26/1944. After her arrest, Judith Ginsberg was transported to the hospital for minor injuries.
