ARTICLE XII- PERSONNEL

A. Authority

The information contained in Chapter 8 of the Rules and Regulations is furnished to acquaint officers with some of the more important personnel policies and practices pertaining to employment with the Kensington Police Department. Although not presented in the form of regulations, each of the subjects covered in subsequent paragraphs has substantive authority in the powers granted to the Board of Directors or the Chief of Police by special laws of the State of California.

B. Violation of Orders

Failure of an employee either willfully, or through negligence or incompetence, to perform the duties of his rank or assignment, or violation by an employee of any police regulations or order, or instruction having the effect of a regulation or order, may be considered sufficient cause for discharge, demotion, suspension or other penalty.

C. Discharge for Cause

An employee may be discharged for a disciplinary purpose at any time for just cause. An employee may be discharged for cause by the Board of Directors or the Chief of Police. Any employee who has been discharged is entitled to receive a written statement of reasons for such action and shall have ten (10) days in which to respond.

D. Suspension

An employee may be suspended from his position by the Chief of Police at any time for the good of the service, for a disciplinary purpose, or for other just cause. Suspension without pay cannot exceed thirty (30) days per occurrence.

The Sergeant of Police, may for the good of the service, detach an employee from active duty, require that the employee relinquish his badge and other official police credentials, and assign the employee to remain at his home pending action by the Chief of Police at the earliest practical moment.

E. Demotion

The Chief of Police can demote an employee whose ability to perform required duties falls below standard or for disciplinary purposes. Notice of the demotion must be given the employee no later than two (2) weeks prior to the effective date of demotion and a copy must be filed with the Chief of Police.

F. Reduction in Departmental Seniority

The Chief of Police can reduce an employee in departmental seniority with attendant loss of privileges normally determined by such seniority and by such seniority and as outlined elsewhere in this Memorandum.

G. Right of Appeal to the Kensington Police Protection and Community Services District Directors

An employee has the right to appeal to the Directors relative to any situation affecting their employment status or conditions of employment, except in those cases involving a general plan affecting the department as a whole. Complaints shall first be made to the Chief of Police. If after presentation to the Chief of Police the complaint has not been satisfactorily adjusted, the employee may appear before the Directors at any of their regular meetings to request a hearing of their complaint, or may file such complaint in writing with the Chief of Police. In the latter instance, the Chief of Police will inform each of the Directors of the filing and contents of the complaint.

Upon receipt of any complaint, the Directors may conduct an investigation as deemed necessary or advisable. In cases where the employee is entitled to a hearing as a matter of right, or in cases here the Directors deem it advisable to hold a hearing, such hearing shall be closed to the public and held within twenty (20) days after the request for the hearing is made.

Whenever a hearing on any complaint is to be held, the Directors shall notify the Chief of Police and the person requesting the hearing of the time and place of the hearing.

Upon conclusion of the hearing, the Directors shall cause its findings and recommendations to be prepared in writing. The findings are countersigned and filed as a permanent record. The Directors shall deliver a true copy of the findings and recommendations to the Chief of Police and to the employee affected.

The action of the Chief of Police and the findings of the Directors are final and conclusive.

ARTICLE XIII- SCOPE AND SEVERABILITY

It is mutually agreed that ratification and approval of this Memorandum of Understanding relieves the Association and the District of any and all further obligation to meet and confer pursuant to Section 3500, et seq., of the California Government Code for the period covered by the Memorandum of Understanding. Meet and confer sessions may, however, be reopened during the life of the Memorandum of Understanding by mutual consent of the Association and the District.

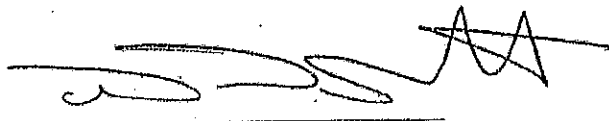

In the event any portion of this Memorandum of Understanding is declared null and void by superseding Federal or State Law, the balance of the Memorandum of Understanding shall continue in full force and effect, and the parties hereto shall commence negotiations to insure that the superseded portion shall be rewritten to conform as closely as possible to the original intent.

ARTICLE XIV - DURATION

This agreement shall be in full force and effect from July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2010.
