FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Release: #2018-003

Subject: Drug Take Back Event

On 4/28/30, from 10:00 AM – 2:00 PM the Kensington Police Department in conjunction with the Kensington Fire Department held a prescription drug take-back day. During this annual program, residents can turn in their unused prescription drugs for destruction.

Illicit drugs such as opiates, cocaine, and methamphetamine are not accepted as part of this program. Persons caught in possession of these substances are subject to arrest.

This year 113.8 pounds of prescription drugs and two sharps containers for needles were collected.

The collected drugs were delivered by the Kensington Police to the DEA at the Ron Dellums Federal Building in the City of Oakland for destruction.
