Rules of Decorum at Meetings

- Persons wishing to speak shall line up on the left side of the room. Each speaker can speak for up to three minutes on any one item. If there are several speakers, please try to be brief to give others the opportunity to speak.
- All persons wishing to speak shall do so at the podium and address their comments to the Board.
- Each member of the public attending the meeting has the right to speak during the public comments period. If the allotted time for public comments has been reached, we will begin the meeting and allow for additional public comment on items not on the agenda but within our jurisdiction after the business portion of our meeting.
- Each member of the public attending the meeting has the right to comment on each item on the agenda. However, the Board President may restrict the number of times that an individual may speak on the same agenda item as necessary to ensure that all persons wishing to comment on that item are heard and that the meeting proceeds in an orderly fashion.
- If any meeting is willfully interrupted so as to render the orderly conduct of the meeting unfeasible, the Board President may order the person or group of persons causing the disruption removed.
- If removal of the person or group of persons causing the disruption of the meeting does not restore order, the Board President may order the room cleared of all members of the public except members of the media and proceed to address the remaining items on the agenda.
